

Amos Howard Jr

November 22, 1953 - November 22, 2023

Amos Howard Jr. was born on November 22, 1953, in Cincinnati, Ohio to Fannie Mae Green (Robinson) and Amos Howard Sr. who preceded him in death. He was educated by the Cincinnati Public School system and attended Aiken High School.

He dedicated his whole heart to his beloved wife Yvonne, whom he met in 1985. They shared 35 years together and had one son, Aquino Demontrae', who preceded him in death.

Amos relocated to Indianapolis, Indiana in 1989 and worked at Taurus Foods as a meat packager. Amos shifted professions and built a career as a Garage Door Technician for Kostoff Mckee & Overhead Garage Doors. After years of employment, Amos decided to pursue the path of entrepreneurship and start his own garage door service company. He served his clients faithfully until choosing to officially retire in 2016.

Amos loved to fish and was an avid bowler. He loved talking crazy about sports. He also enjoyed hosting barbecues with his family and friends in his backyard. Most of all, Amos enjoyed working in the community to provide sports activities for youth. What started as an opportunity to coach his son's baseball team ended up blossoming into more than 35 years of coaching and developing sports leagues throughout the east side of Indianapolis.

He was preceded in death by his only brother, Anthony Robinson.

He left this life to be with the Lord on Wednesday, November 22, 2023. He leaves to cherish his beloved memory: his daughters, Arnita Jenkins (Kenneth) and Arleshia Howard (Richard); his son, Avachino Reeves; his sister, Wanda Horton (Marion); his grandchildren O'Bryant, Alexis, Francesca, Davounce, Janae, Aniya, Angelo and a host of great-grandchildren, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins, and many friends.

Amos was known as "Amo" & "Famous Amos" in the neighborhood and will be remembered by the many he blessed along the way.
