

Angela Bolden

June 18, 1966 - December 22, 2024

Angela Rozena Bolden was born June 18, 1966, to Edward Dubose and the late Ethal Bolden in Shubuta, MS. After her birth she and her mom moved to Indianapolis, IN.

Angela was known to her family and friends as “Angie”

At a younger age Angela attended Freedom Temple Church of GOD In Christ and was baptized at the age of 13. She later attended Spirit of Truth and from there she became a member of These of They Church. She attended IPS school 51 and graduated from Arsenal Tech High School. Angela worked at the Marion County Juvenile Center for 10 years. She loved kids and enjoyed working with them, so much so that she resigned from there to open up her own daycare. Angela stepped away from the workforce to take care of her mom when she became ill. She had a big heart for caring for others, so she became a foster parent to several children. From that she adopted three children for herself. Angela continued to care for others as well and anyone who needed a place to lay their head she provided for.

Angela enjoyed photography, traveling, and spending time with family and friends.

Angela departed this life on December 22, 2024, at the age of 58. She leaves to cherish her loving memories her father Edward Dubose Sr. (Mississippi), Son Deon Bolden (Indianapolis) daughters Mandasja and Autumn (Indianapolis) grandson Asce Gilmore, sister Jackie Rufus (Mississippi) brothers Anthony DuBose (wife Tysha) (New Jersey) Jonathan Finley (Indianapolis), Edward DuBose Jr.(New Jersey), Kishon DuBose (New Jersey) Armod DuBose (New Jersey) and Aaron Dwight Finley (Angie) (Indianapolis) a long time best friend that stood by her until the end Juanita Hughes-Wright and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, godchildren and friends.
