

Anita Carol Wilson

September 21, 1949 - May 20, 2025

Anita Carol Wilson, age 75, of Indianapolis, Indiana, stepped into glory with grace on May 20, 2025. She was born on September 21, 1949, in Indianapolis, Indiana, to the late Eugene Freeman and Mary Williams.

Anita attended Roosevelt High School in Dayton, Ohio, and later obtained her cosmetology license. She wore many hats throughout her life — working as a bus driver and ultimately retiring as a compassionate and dedicated CNA/private caregiver, serving numerous families with love and commitment.

She was a faithful, long-standing member of Eastern Star Church. Anita was vibrant, stylish, and full of joy. Known for her infectious laugh, she found her greatest joy in spending time with family, dancing, decorating, going to the gym and creating crafts with her grandchildren. She loved shopping, and dining out, always celebrating life to the fullest.

She was preceded in death by her parents, and her brother James Willis. And only niece Linda Willis.

She leaves behind her husband Shawn Wilson, and beloved children her greatest joy in life: Latoya Martin, Latonia (Ezell) Triplett, Thomas (Kammy) Bronaugh Sr, sister, Eugenia Grissom, and nephew Stephen Willis Sr

Anita was the proud grandmother of four: LaTia Allen, Robert Montgomery Jr, Robyn Montgomery, Thomas Bronaugh Jr., and 6 great grandchildren: Amani, Brooklyn, Laila, Noah, Alaya & Chance. She also leaves 5 step-children & 11 step grandchildren and a host of other family and friends.

We never say “goodbye,” it’s “see you later,” captures her eternal spirit. And for those who knew her well, the phrase “Blow the Whistle” will forever bring a smile.
