She continued her education at Wilmington University in Ohio. Later in adulthood she too attended Martin University in Indianapolis, Indiana.

Ann had a brief stint in the Air Force where she received an Honorable Discharge due to injury.

Ann's employment history was extensive. She found joy in the impact she had on the youth during her time as a Howe High School Security Guard. Of Her many entrepreneurial endeavors; Real Estate seemed to be where she was most excited, because she was able to envision a beautiful home for she and her girls as she showed the different properties.

Our Mother was a kind, loving, soft spoken Lady. Who loved her family, right wrong or indifferent. She was feisty; she would say what she meant and meant what she said but also would give the world to those she loved... especially her girls. She would light up and have the biggest smile seeing and talking to her grandchildren.

Evidence of Mom's love flowed through her girls and her grandchildren. And will continue to spread throughout the next generations.
