“ I am antwains best friend we been besties for years & even though we lived in different states we still came to see each other and made sure each other was straight. This breaks my heart to know that he’s gone. I just want to say he left an impact on all of us down here in Camden, NJ. We loved him like he was our own prays for our to his babymomma and his child who he will love thru. - Love Lee ☐

“ You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. I remember the times when your kids were little and would come to work with you to do a quick oxygen drop off. So sweet and polite. It was obvious your son was so proud to hang with his dad.
