“ I first met Bea when I began working as a clerk in Med2 at the Indy VA in 1990. Bea was a no nonsense practitioner and ran a tight ship. Bea will always hold a special place in my heart because she was literally my first and only dance - at her own wedding, no less - Here and Now by Luther Vandross. I moved on from the medical center, and even away from Indy, but I have often thought of Bea over the years and wondered whatever happened to her.

Now, as I'm sitting in DFW and finding her obituary more than 2 years after her passing, I'm even more sad I didn't stay in touch.

Rest easy Bea and know you've been in many of my thoughts over the years. Peace and love to your family.

“ My condolences to the family! I will miss Bea, the smell of her fried bologna sandwiches and most of all her sense of humor. We lost not only lost a co-worker but we lost a friend. My God provide you comfort during this difficult time.
