

Betty Jean Fisher

November 26, 1946 - January 6, 2023

Betty was born and raised in the Midwest between Tennessee, Kentucky and Indiana. She was educated in the Indianapolis Public schools and attended Shortridge High School.

She loved the Lord with all her heart and would often say, "I can't do much, but I am praying for you". Betty was a fighter. In her 76 years loaned on earth she fought daily with Polymyositis and kicked breast cancer out, twice!

She was an adamant supporter for Breast Cancer Awareness and would attend "walks" even when she had to roll.

Betty never met a stranger and had a flair for being snappy and making everyone fall in love with her. She treasured her children whom she shared with her husband Otis Fisher Jr., and embraced every moment with them. She the loving mother of Devin Lamarr Fisher and Kristine AnJanette Hillman (Ervin). Betty is the adored Nana of Devin N. Abrahams (Dwight), Khaleeq D. Williams (Venita), TaKreemah Abdul-Halim (Brayson), Alejandro Catalan, Adarius L. Hillman, Malik D. Abdul-Halim (Destiney), Shakeemah Crisp, D'Amani Hillman (Richard),

Amaari Abdul-Halim, Armahn Hillman, Heaven Hillman and fourteen Great Grans.

Betty is the loving daughter of the late Rev. Garland and Anna Mae Birdsong (Lawrence Merritt) and cherished sister to predeceased sister Madeline D. Carpenter. She will be deeply missed by her brothers, Gordon Merritt, Volley-Wayne Birdsong, Elder William D. Birdsong (Lisa), Garland Birdsong, Jr. and sisters, Anne Mitchell, Alice Turner, Irene Birdsong and Dorneen Harris (Dwight). Betty will always be remembered by cousins whom she grew up with, nieces and nephews who doted on her and a host of family and friends.

Betty would never say goodbye when ending a call but instead would end with several versions of later. Call me later, see you soon, until next time, take care, ta ta, later gater, after-while crocodile.
