

Bobbie S Baker-Jamison

November 17, 1954 - June 10, 2023

Bobbie Sue was born in Marvell, Arkansas, on November 17, 1954, to Sank and Elnora Wilborn. Bobbie was the baby and only girl out of four children. Her brothers called her "Boo." Bobbie received her formal education from Pontiac Business Institute, where she obtained an associate's degree.

At a young age, she professed her faith in Jesus Christ as her savior.

Bobbie Sue worked in the transportation industry. She was a steward for the Greyhound. She also drove the bus for Indianapolis Public School transportation. Bobbie was a faithful member of the Potter's House Church. She loved the word of God and was a praying woman.

Bobbie Sue was a phenomenal singer. She did not bite her tongue; she said what she thought and thought what she said. Bobbie Sue would give the shirt off her back and never met a stranger. Although Bobbie only gave birth to three kids, she became a second mother to many. She indeed had a heart of gold.

Bobbie Sue departed this life on Saturday, June 10, 2023, in her sleep with loved ones by her side at sixty-eight years and seven months.

Bobbie Sue was preceded in death by her parents, Sank and Elnora Wilborn, and her brother Lepoleon "Poke" Wilborn.

Bobbie Sue leaves to cherish her memories her brothers Willie James (Irma) and James Ed Wilborn, sister in love Shirley Wilborn, daughter Brenda (James) Dotson, two sons, Rodgeric (Yolanda) Harris, Jermichael Wilborn, 11 grandchildren Kristen Tate, Keandra Mckinney, Patrick Cummings, Ciera

(Derrick)Posey, Keara (Terrell) Coe, Keashia Woods, Dasia Harris, Keashawnia Hoskins, Mark Brooks, Kaiya Harris, and Jermikah, 16 great-grandchildren, Godchildren, and a host of special nieces and nephews, family and friends.
