

Brenda B. Brown

July 19, 1954 - December 16, 2023

Brenda Bell Brown was born on July 19th, 1954, to John Tigner Sr. and Willie Mae Taylor in Dayton Ohio

Brenda moved to Indiana in her early years of life and was raised by her Aunt Susie Bell after her mothers passing. When she was three years old. After Susie Bell passed,

Brenda adopted her baby sister

Charolette and raised her till she was grown. Shortly after that Brenda started a family of her own.

Brenda attended school #20, and Wood High School. She worked many years as a CNA until discovering her true passion, for cooking. She then became a dietary manager for over 40 years until she retired. She loved her family and friends. Brenda made everyone she encountered feel loved and accepted. She had a way with words and could look at you and tell when something was bothering you.

She always had that sense to tell when something was wrong. She had away of getting it out of you. She had a different relationship with everyone and had away to make you feel like you were her favorite, but she loved everyone the same, she was the meaning of Love and acceptance.

Brenda loved cooking, playing cards, animals, and hanging with friends and loved ones. She was inseparable with her sisters, she would always tell them "I don't care who the oldest is, I'm the boss."

She loved her siblings more than life itself.

Brenda married Rodney Franklin in the late 90's, until his passing in 2002. She remarried in 2010 to Robert Brown.

She leaves behind Kim Anthony Tigner, Marcia Renee, Ezzel and Amber Murrell and Ronald Brown. Her siblings Shirley, Marsha, and Anthony. 18 Grandchildren, and 21 Great grandchildren and a host of family and friends. She was preceded in death by her parents John and Willie Mae, Brother's John Tigner Jr and Joe Edward and Sister Charolette Mae. Her son Timothy Rucker Sr, her grandkids Derrisha Searcy, Timothy Rucker Jr., and Anthony Searcy and both her husbands Rodney and Robert.
