“ From the first day we met we clicked and from then you made it your business to be a part of my life. You gave no last farewell nor ever said goodbye I laugh at our last encounter at your crib because you ensured me I had nothing to worry about. A few days later You were gone before I knew it and only god knows why. A million times I will miss you trying to dance and singing to me lol I love you Bryan and I'll never forget all the times we spent, laughing, traveling, joking and even having words. Just know I heard everything you said and I gave you my word so I'll stick to that. I'm so sorry this happened to you I'll forever cherish these memories I have of you. May god bring peace, comfort and strength during this difficult time. Loved beyond words. Missed beyond measures. Always and forever in my heart -Tati

“ The last few years with you in my life were so eventful. And I learned a lot from loving you. You always told me it was in Gods plan for you to come into my life, I'm just having trouble understanding his plan taking you out of it so soon. But you left me with 3 beautiful gifts. And I will cherish them and love on them a little extra for you everyday. Until we meet again❤️👪

“ I love you cuz. I’m sorry I won’t be there. I can’t get the day off. Don’t even think I could handle seeing another family member gone because of a auto accident. I been thinking about you and Zek everyday. This was so unexpected and I’m still in disbelief. I just know you up there with the family having the best of laughs. I love you. Rest well with our ancestors. #LovesTheKey
