

Cleveland Fair Sr.

May 25, 1935 - December 27, 2025

Cleveland Fair also warmly known as “Foot,” was born on May 25, 1935 to Charlie and Jessie

Ivey Fair. He was born the oldest of six children in Pittsview, Alabama. He entered eternal rest at age 90 at 7:00am on Saturday, December 27, 2025.

He was preceded in death by his mother and father, his wife Mae Bell Gatewood Fair, sisters

Mary Alice Clark, Edith Mae Dickerson, Ethel Mackey, and Carsee Benton. He dedicated his life to Christ at age sixty-five and was baptized by the late Pastor Frank Alexander of Oasis of Hope Baptist Church (Indianapolis, Indiana).

He grew up in Phenix City, Alabama, and worked various jobs before moving his family to Indianapolis, Indiana, in 1950. He worked for Tuchman Cleaners before taking a job at Interstate Foundry and Interstate Casting. He worked at Interstate for over forty years and it was a place that he genuinely loved. He was known as a devoted and dedicated hard worker, going beyond the call of duty every day. In November 2017, he retired from Interstate and his life was never the same.

He was a super fan of the Dodgers and Jackie Roberson. He loved playing cards and spending his free time at the casino.

He leaves to cherish his memory sister Ruthie Lee Williams, ex-wife Dollie Fair, son Cleveland

Fair, Jr. (Tracika Webb), daughters Lavern Fresh and Evelyn Walker (DeWayne), grandchildren

Kameisha Fair, Kyeesha Fair, Bryon Wallace, Micheal Fresh, Terrance Fresh, DeWayne Walker,

Darion Walker and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and longtime friend Willie Adams.

Cleveland Fair was a testament to faith and family. His warmth, kindness, and unwavering love for those around him will forever be remembered. He will be missed, but his legacy will live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.
