DA'QUAN LANEIR BROWN affectionately known as "Dadae" by family and "Quan Gucci" by friends, was born October 30, 1994 in Akron, Ohio to Shellarie Brown and Wayne Beach.

DA'QUAN graduated from Lawrence Central High School in 2013 where he excelled as a state champion hurdler. Da'Quan loved track, music, and spending time with his daughter, family, and friends.

His untimely passing has affected us all deeply and he will be sorely and truly missed. However, God has called him home, which means he will no longer feel pain or worry and in that we can find comfort.

DA'QUAN was called home to be with the Lord December 17, 2021 at the age of twenty-seven years old. He is preceded in death by his maternal grandfather Nathaniel Brown, Grandmother Jessie Mae Walker, and cousin Chandler Beach.
