

Delores Maxie

December 22, 1940 - June 16, 2024

Delores Maxie, (Ms. D) daughter to George and Sally Pittman. Delores was born December 22, 1940 in Sylvester, GA.

She accepted Christ as her personal savior at St. Paul Baptist Church, GA.

Attended as a guest member at Eastern Star Church, with daughter and son-in-law. Later she joined Blessed Hope

Baptist Church with Pastor Ward.

She attended J.W. Holly High School. Married James Maxie 1961 at the age of 22 years old, Worked a variety of industries positions, laundry tech at Castleton HC for 6 years. Nannie for several grandchildren. Unofficial supervisor at Joy's House Adult Day Care since diagnosed with Alzheimer's in 2014. Ms. D was adamant that the staff wrote down her schedule, clocked her in and out, so she would never be late. She feared losing her job, but never questioned where her paycheck was. Family wants to publicly, thank Joy's House for the excellent care Ms. D received.

Ms. D enjoyed shopping, watching QVC and family vacations. Widowed at 67.

Later in life she became very FOND of Sean Connery 007," her boyfriend".

June 16 th 2024, Ms. D departed this life at the age of 83 years old and entered glory. Her beautiful smile and sassiness will truly be missed.

Ms. D was preceded in death by parents Sally and George Pittman. Brothers Dawn, Jimmie, Carol and Harold Pittman and sister Mattie Proctor. Grandsons Major Maxie, Gregory Smith and Alexander Taylor.

She leaves to cherish her memories siblings Johnnie Mae, Jerry and Rufus Thomas. Children
