

Devin Lamont Scanlon

March 4, 2005 - March 17, 2024

Devin Lamont Scanlon was born on March 4, 2005 in Indianapolis, Indiana; the youngest child born to Shanitha Hollins and Darrel Scanlon. Devin accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior at a young age and was baptized under the direction of Pastor Webster Campbell. He later joined New Direction Church, and was a member at the time of his passing. Devin was educated in the Indianapolis Public School (IPS) systems and attended a host of schools throughout the years; he last attended Thrival Indy Academy charter school. Devin was an accomplished athlete; he wrestled competitively and was undefeated when he attended Howe High School. Through affiliations with the PAL Club, Municipal Gardens and the schools he attended, Devin also played football and basketball. Devin exhibited entrepreneurial characteristics at a young age; he never shied away from hard work. During the summers he would cut grass and perform other odd jobs, he then used the money he earned to buy candy to sell to people in the neighborhood. His work ethic continued throughout the years, as evidenced by Devin obtaining a certification as a Forklift Operator. Devin's smile was infectious and he was extremely charismatic; the minute he walked into a room it filled with animated energy. The videos frequently posted to social media by his family clearly reflected his comedic nature and the strong bond they shared. Devin's life ended tragically on Sunday, March 17, 2024, at 19 years and 13 days of age. He is preceded in death by his maternal grandfather, William A. Hollins; maternal great-grandparents, Barbara Hoskins and Donald Hoskins; and his paternal great-grandfather, James Scanlon. Left to cherish Devin's memory are his mother, Shanitha Hollins; father, Darrel Scanlon; sisters, Diamond Scanlon and Destiny Griffin; brother, Darrel "DJ" Scanlon Jr.; niece, Ka'Mora Falls; maternal grandmother, Debra Hoskins-Jones (Steve); paternal grandparents, Larry and Esther Scanlon; paternal great-grandmother, Maggie Scanlon; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.
