“ There the wicked cease from troubling; and there the weary be at rest...Job 3:17

To Bro. Rodnie Bryant: With deep sorrow I send condolences and prayers to you and your family. I loved singing along with Mom Emma in the choir's tenor section at Messiah and boy could she sing 🎵🎤. She shall forever be in my heart and memory.

“ My condolences and prayers are with Rodnie and the entire family, CCMC family and friends. I used to walk a couple of miles every day but if the weather was bad I would walk inside the mall and every time I went, there would be Mother Bryant and we would get our walk in. Whenever I would see her somewhere else would ask if I was still walking. She will be dearly missed and I know she's going to walk around heaven all day.

Family, I offer my deepest condolences in your loss. I have so many wonderful memories of Sis Bryant that will live in my heart forever; especially her infectious laugh. She had a special way of letting you know that you mattered. May her legacy live on in all of her family. May your memories comfort you.
