He continued his education at Marian University as a Nursing student and Collegiate bowler. After one year at Marian, Jordan completed the LPN program at Ivy Tech and began working in Nursing Homes, Assisted Living and Memory Care facilities taking care of others loved ones. He was loved by co-workers, management, residents and even the resident pets.

As a bowler, Jordan was well respected for his talent and his willingness to help others to improve their game.

As a person, Jordan was known for his infectious smile, his caring ways, his gentle spirit and his generosity.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his parents (Sharon & Thomas), his sisters (Tia & Aubrey), his brothers (Thomas Jr. & Christopher), his grandmother (Ida Taylor), his Aunt's (Marilyn, Brenda, Teena, Jamey and Carla), his uncle (Eric), his best friend since middle school (Dierria Moore) and a host of cousins and friends. “ I can remember back to your nurseaversary when Manisha and I got you those spare pins because you never had one when it was time to document along with the bowling t shirt and socks your face lit up like a kid in a candy store and then came that one in a million smile. Jordan was a very kind and loving person who longed to be loved and accepted. I am going to miss that infectious smile, random text messages, facetimes and phone calls just to hear him say 'haven't heard from you in a minute, just checking in' but most of all I'm going to miss his presence in general. Until we meet again rest easy my friend 🥹
