

Joyce Radford

October 5, 1948 - September 6, 2025

Joyce Radford, 76, passed away in the comfort of her home on September 6, 2025. Born to the late Earl and Clementine Mitchell on October 5, 1948, along with her late twin sister, Loyce Carson, in Indianapolis, Joyce lived a long and meaningful life rooted in faith, family, and service to others. Joyce loved crocheting and sewing, bowling, playing cards and bingo, and watching movies, her favorites being The Equalizer and Rush Hour.

Joyce confessed a hope and faith in Jesus Christ at an early age, being baptized and confirmed at St. Philip's Episcopal Church. She received her diploma from Crispus Attucks High School, graduating in 1967. She was a certified nursing assistant at Methodist Hospital for many years and ending her working career at The United States Postal Service.

Joyce was a devoted wife to her late husband, Phillip Radford, for 5 decades. She was also a loving and nurturing mother, a cherished grandmother and great-grandmother, a caring sister, a beloved aunt, and a compassionate friend.

Joyce is survived by her daughters, Joi Radford and Michelle Turner, her siblings Dee Meredith (Walter), Lynn Mitchell, and Mark Mitchell (Tracy), along with many grandchildren, great/grandchildren, nieces, nephews, extended family members, and friends who will cherish her memory. She was preceded in death by her husband, Phillip Radford, her daughter, Lynda Jackson, parents, Earl and Clementine Mitchell, and siblings Loyce Carson and Earl Mitchell Jr. Joyce's gentle spirit, sense of humor, and endless love for her family will remain in our hearts forever. Her life was a blessing, her memory a treasure, and her love a gift that will be truly missed.
