May 30, 1932 - November 9, 2023

Lorine Britt Smith was born on May 30, 1932 to Fred Britt and Mirtie Strader Britt in the city of Indianapolis, IN. She was known by all as Little Bit.

At an early age Lorine professed her love for Christ and was baptized at New Garfield Baptist Church, she later joined Bethesda Temple. Later in life she rejoined New Garfield. Lorine loved the Lord , she loved discussing the Bible particularly Books of Matthews and Acts

Lorine received her formal education at IPS school #19 and Crispus Attucks High School. Lorine was a Homemaker until she gained employment with the Stygal Company where she remained employed until she was diagnosed with stomach cancer. She fought the fight and became a 40 year cancer survivor. Lorine would light a room up with her smile and that joyous laugh. She loved going to the casino, dancing, and listening to the blues. Of her many loves in life she most loved her annual birthday parties where she would enjoy time with family, friends, and live bands. She would often give the family a scare by standing up from her wheelchair or walker dancing to the blues. She celebrated her life and her family celebrated her.
