

Mario A Watts

July 28, 1972 - July 10, 2025

Obituary Mario Annjolto Watts July 28, 1972 – July 10, 2025

Mario Annjolto Watts was born on July 28, 1972, in Washington, North Carolina, to the late William Ira Watts and Naomi Anthony Watts. He was raised in Indianapolis, Indiana, where he attended public school and graduated from George Washington High School.

Mario proudly served in the United States Army, completing active-duty assignments in South Korea and at Fort Hood in Killeen, Texas, before receiving an honorable discharge.

On September 3, 2016, Mario was united in holy matrimony with Tiffany Boyd. From this union came their beloved son, Benjamin Watts.

Mario's nick names: Odie, O, Woody and Sunday School.

After his military service, Mario was employed at American Art Clay in Indianapolis. In addition to his work there, he embraced his entrepreneurial spirit by founding his own construction company.

Mario accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior at the Original Church of God under the leadership of Bishop Frank Tisdale and Bishop Warren E. Boyd. Under Bishop Boyd's guidance, Mario became a licensed minister and dedicated his life to ministry and service. In August 2018, he joined his mother in establishing New Hope Mission, where he served faithfully as a Bible study leader and Sunday school assistant.

Known for his powerful prayers and encyclopedic knowledge of scripture, Mario had a passion for sharing the Word of God and was always ready to sing a solo or lend a helping hand.

Mario was a devoted father, loving son, caring brother, and loyal friend. He cherished time spent with his family and friends, and his presence was marked by a generous spirit, a joyful heart, and a deep commitment to his faith.

He leaves to cherish his memory his son, Benjamin Watts; his mother, Naomi Watts; his brothers, William Watts Jr. (Katrika) and Bruce Evans; his sisters, Lelia Watts and Grace

Thornton (Richard); and a host of extended family, church family, and dear friends.

Mario's legacy of faith, service, and love will continue to live on in the hearts of those who knew him.
