

Ollie Harris

November 14, 1941 - March 10, 2023

Ollie Jingles was born in Alabama on November 14, 1941, to Esli and Elnora Jingles. She was the fourth of nine children. She attended and graduated from Marengo County schools. Not long after school, Ollie relocated to Indianapolis, Indiana, where she worked at United Hospital Services until her retirement. Accepting Christ and being taught under the leadership of Elder David Lee at Zion Hill Missionary Baptist Church was very special to her. She loved the Lord very much. Becoming a mom was also a great joy.

Ollie met and married the late Robert Harris. She then began practicing her cooking skills. Ollie became one of the best cooks in her family. She would never let anyone give one penny towards the food she purchased. People stopped by, saw her cooking, and the word would get out. It was nothing to see many cars wherever she was because they knew the food would be excellent. Ollie would even call and offer to send a plate to those who could not come by. She did not eat very much. She just loved having the family together, talking, laughing, and loving one another. Another passion of hers was riding. Her granddaughter, Tanisha, and grandson, Dajuan, came by regularly. Ms. Ollie would make her way to the front seat of their car. It didn't matter where they were headed; she was going too. Her favorite saying, if others did something wrong, was, "It's OK. They probably did not mean it.

Pray for them".

Ms. Ollie Harris departed this life on March 10th, 2023, at the age of 81 years and three months old. She was preceded in death by her parents, Esli and Elnora Jingles, her husband, Bob, her brother, Esli, and her sisters, Bessie Pickens and Josie Jingles.

She is survived by her son, Ricky Jingles, and daughter, Barbara Jingles (James), three brothers, Willie Gingles (Donna),

Jimmy Jingles (Theresa), James Jingles (Willie), two sisters, Mary Laing and Elnora Jingles, six grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
