“ Portia was a beam of light that illuminated her love for her Lord, her life, her husband, her children, her grandchildren, and the countless newborn babies she helped nurture into peaceful sleep. May the years of priceless memories you all shared together comfort your hearts and minds, in the difficult days ahead.

I will truly miss the many deep conversations she and I shared over her 5-star salmon, oven-baked potatoes, and roasted asparagus. Never to forget, the quart-full glass of Alkaline water she served with every meal, snack, and desert....Lol

“ When I met your mother, Portia, she was so warm and kind. Such a dear, sweet woman. I know she loved her husband, Jim and her children and grandchildren so much. Unfortunately, I only visited with her a couple of times last year. But Portia was a remarkable woman and I will always remember her. Sarah, you look like your Mom and you are so much like her. My thoughts, prayers and love to you, your dear father and your brothers and sisters. Mary Askeland

“ Portia was a beautiful person inside and out. She always had a smile whenever she saw you. She will be an angel in heaven like she was on earth. God bless Jim and family.
