“ Raneisha was a sweet woman. I didn't know her personally. I was the mailman for Ashley's where she worked. And saw her everyday. Always with a smile on her face. We would chat for a bit, always trying to sell me a mattress 😊. I hadn't seen her in a week, I just assumed she was on vacation or dealing with customers, only to find out she had passed away. My heart sunk, so young, lively and lovely. My heart goes out to Jax, but know he's in good hands with family. Prayers to the family and friends as they deal with this loss. - RR “ Neisha invited me to church with her. I joined that same day. As I kept going to church, my dad joined, my daughters joined and my mom joined. I love her for that.

“ I remember the first time you let me behind the wheel. You were so nervous but you put faith in me. You would try to distract me with siren noises on the highway making me paranoid lol. I will miss your uplifting spirit and your beautiful smile. I love you and Rest Peacefully.
