

Tariah C Smith

December 4, 1986 - June 17, 2025

Tariah Chantel Smith was born on December 4, 1986, in Wurzburg, Germany to Cherlynn Marie Smith and the late Eric Tyrone Smith. She attended Warren Township schools and graduated from Warren Central High School. She later received her Associates from Kaplan University. She was currently pursuing her Bachelor's degree in Health Information Management from Indiana University. Tariah professed her faith in Christ at an early age at Travelers Rest Missionary Baptist Church.

Tariah was a woman known for her unwavering work ethic and quiet determination. Tariah was employed by CVS, where she worked as an Authorization Specialist. Tariah was always admired for her reliability and how she consistently met deadlines without complaint.

Tariah was a woman whose heart belonged equally to the kitchen and the open road. From a young age, she found joy in blending spices, testing recipes, and sharing meals with anyone who wandered near her door. Her passion for cooking was matched only by her love of travel. Whether it was taking on the hot desert by ATV or going snorkeling in the ocean, her life became a beautiful tapestry woven from recipes, memories, and friendships.

Tariah gave birth to her first child, Maxwell Tyrone Goodwin, on May 31, 2025.

From the moment she held Maxwell in her arms, a love deeper than anything she had ever known took root in her heart. Every tiny breath he took, every soft whimper and flutter of his lashes, stirred an overwhelming sense of devotion within her. In quiet moments, as she held Maxwell, she knew that her world had forever

changed; her purpose was wrapped in the warmth and weight of a love that would never waver.

Tariah departed this life on June 18, 2025 at the age of 38. She was preceded in death by her father, Eric

Tyrone Smith. She leaves to cherish her memory, her son, Maxwell Tyrone Goodwin, her mother,

Cherlynn Lange Smith, her sister, Erica Prieto (Alan), her partner, Christopher Goodwin, her nieces, Alina and Callie Prieto, and a host of cousins, extended family and many close friends.
