“ I can remember the first I laid my eyes on you at the time you was 5 or 6 months and the first time you spent the night at my house and your dad was living with me and you fell out your car seat and you was crying and I came to see about you and your lip was busted and I said what happened to my baby and you was pointing at your mouth and I said auntie will make it better from that day on we had a special bond and nothing could break that. I just want you to know I will always carry you in my heart you was more than my nephew I will truly miss you! Love you your Godmother Auntie Tosha.
