“ The Duval Family were neighbors of ours for years in St. Martin Village! I remember Theresa and her younger brother. We were classmates at BSHS class of 73 and 1972.
We send our sincere prayers, love, and condolences to the Duval and Johnson Family.

Sincerely,
Gisele Brown Mack, Ed.D

“ To the family of Theresa, Theresa was a loving coworker and friend. Always presenting herself with respect, class and dignity. Her smile would light up a room. She would always ask me to quote a poem titled “Don’t you be what you ain’t, just you be what you is” and she truly lived by that, uniquely beautiful. May she RIP 🙏

“ To Horace (Bino) Johnson and family, Our sincere, heartfelt sympathy goes out all of you. God feels your pain and sorrow and He's right there to help you through it. Let Him hold you. May His presence be a continual source of comfort, strength and inner peace during this difficult time and the coming days ahead. May all the beautiful memories you all shared with Theresa bring you joy. Thank God for a mind to remember and a heart that loves forever. With love, The Allen Family
