

Tierra D Cartwright

January 8, 1990 - December 23, 2025

Tierra Dominique Cartwright also known as “Sweets” was born January 8, 1990 to Tyrone Cartwright and Kimberly Campbell. She attended Warren Central High School. She was known to have a very compassionate heart, through her ups and down, and other’s rights and wrongs of her. She had a very contagious smile, and more than anything she loved family. My “Sweets” was known for being loud, having fun, but most of all, being a Giver.

REMEMBER ME

I am now a memory for all of you. Collections of smiles, tears, laughs, and hugs is what I leave. At some part of life, we all become memories for others. No longer able to touch and no longer able to see, but you can always remember me. Pain may come but won’t last. And when it leaves, beauty of the memories will remain. Death leaves a heartache no one can heal; love leaves a memory no one can steal. Moments are only temporary but memories last forever. So, treasure all the memories we shared. Because when someone you love becomes a memory, that memory becomes a treasure.

Cousin: Anthane C. Wagner

How far you go in life depends on your being tender with the young, compassionate with the aged, sympathetic with the striving and tolerant of the weak and strong.

Because someday in your life you will have been all of these.

George Washington Carver

2 Corinthians 1: 3-4

Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort; Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

Tierra leaves to cherish her loving memories, parents, Tyrone Cartwright and Kimberly

(Campbell) Shockley; her children, two daughters O'Mya Rollins, O'Mariya Rollins, son

Ori'Monnie Rollins; sister Taniqua Cartwright , brother Tyrone I Cartwright, grandmother Alice

Phillips, grandmother Mariann Johnson, grandfather Euranus Johnson, two nephews, two nieces, a host of uncles, and aunts, other relatives and friends. She is gone from this life but never forgotten. To the world she may have meant nothing, but to her parents she was the world.
