

Timothy Randall Brown Jr.

August 12, 1987 - March 16, 2024

Timothy R. Brown Jr. affectionally known as Tim, was born August 12, 1987 in Indianapolis, Indiana. He was the loving son of Timothy and Emma Brown Sr. and birth mother Veronica Gatewood.

Tim professed his love for Christ at a young age and was baptized at True Belief Missionary Baptist Church. Joining Corinthian Missionary Baptist Church, he continued to have a personal relationship with Christ. There he was involved in many youth and young adult ministries, where he served faithfully. He was educated in the Lawrence Township school system and obtained his high school diploma from Lawrence North High School, Go Cats! Tim received a wrestling scholarship to Wilmington College and graduated with a Bachelors Degree in Graphic Design. At an early age Tim was introduced to the world of sports. Often following his big cousin Brent to many of his football games. He also played baseball on various leagues throughout his youth. As well as basketball and football. But it wasn't until middle school, where he fell in love with wrestling and fitness. Making wrestling his world all through adulthood. Tim even tried his hand as a MMA Cage Fighter, Tim “Pitbull” Brown still holds two undefeated title belts.

Tim had such a love for kids. So much so, his first job was a camp counselor at Nu Heights Academy.

Where he later became Lead Preschool Teacher for ages 2-3. He also worked side by side for many years with his father Tim Sr. as one of his laborers in the family business. He often utilized his degree in graphic design and created several logos for many companies, where his work will live on. He was a self taught barber. Cutting many of his classmates hair in college and even some of his wrestlers that he coached. Though he worked various other part-time jobs: bartender, bouncer, warehouse production he never strayed far from his first love, coaching. He was the wrestling coach for Lawrence Central, later landing at Belzer Middle School in Lawrence Township. There he touched many lives through his love of coaching, training and wrestling. Those young men meant the world to him.

When he wasn't coaching, you'd still find him in the gym working out. If he wasn't in the gym, you'd find him jogging in the neighborhood or across the street at the park using the monkey bars as his personal gym.

Tim was a man of few words. But when he spoke, he definitely had a word to say. Tim loved his family and was often the life of the party making every one laugh and smile. It was not an event if Tim didn't display that creepy smile of his. Affectionately known as “Uncle Tim” he loved his nieces and nephew, often hosting slumber parties with his daughter and nieces. Tim was a brother and his siblings meant the world to him. Even though he often thought he was the boss. However, of all the things Tim was being a father was his life. His daughter Karsyn stole his heart the day she was born. He loved her more than anything in the world. Tim had a heart of gold and would do anything for anybody, to know him was to love him.

Tim departed this earthly life on Saturday, March 16, 2024 at the age of 36 years 7 months.

Timothy R. brown Jr. leaves to cherish his precious memory his beloved daughter Karsyn Brown, parents Timothy and Emma Brown Sr., birth mother Veronica Gatewood, five siblings, TiMia, Monique, Maria, Christopher Brown and Daris Wallace, three nieces, Anyah Brown, Kai and Kali Gary, one nephew Caden Barney and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.
