“ Dear Family:

We, the families of The Compassionate Friends, send you our heartfelt condolences on Tyler's passing.

The Compassionate Friends is an international, non-denominational, grief support group for parents, grandparents and siblings who have suffered the heartbreaking loss of a child. Our only mission is to provide comfort, hope and support to every family experiencing the death of a son or daughter, brother or sister, or grandchild, and to help others better assist the grieving family.

We meet monthly on the first Wednesday at the New Hope Church, 5307 Fairview Rd, Greenwood, IN 46142 and on the third Tuesday at the Epworth United Methodist, 6450 Allisonville Road, Indianapolis, IN 46220. Both meetings begin at 6:30pm.

If, and when, you are ready to do so, please join us for either, or both, meetings.

We Need Not Walk Alone. We are The Compassionate Friends.

“ Tyler was a great friend to me we went to middle school together and reconnected years later working together my mom was sick at the time with cancer and Tyler was there for me as a great friend all the way until the end . I lost my mom and he came to the funeral and was a pall bearer I am so saddened to hear of his passing.

“ Tyler's smile could light up a room! I always enjoyed when Tyler came to music class at Skiles Test Elementary, when he was a little boy. His personality was always pleasant, which gained him many friends, and he was always willing and eager to participate in any activities that were planned in the music room. Tyler will be greatly missed here on earth and welcomed in heaven by our Savior. Ms. Taylor, Tyler's Elementary Music Teacher
