“ I told you that you were going to be fine and I know you are....it's just not how I thought it would be.

I will always remember you as a toddler eating apples off the trees in Mamaw Cheyenne's back yard. You ran from tree to tree sampling as many as you could, wrinkling your face into a giant smile and running like the wind.

I will be checking the sky for the brightest star because I know it will be yours. Love, Aunt Cheree'

“ My Sweet T!! You are my first-born Grandson. Together, we made lots of memories. There are 3 I will share here.

The first one is about the nickname I used to call you - - “Baby Cakes.” Finally, after hearing this nickname several times, you boldly said to me, “ My name’s not Baby Cakes, my name’s Tyler.”

The 2nd memory is how we used to play basketball in the stairwell of the 2-story house on Grand Tetons Blvd. We had so much fun trying to see who could make the most baskets!! You usually won!!

The final memory is the lunch we shared on Grandparents Day. I think you were in Pre-School. After finishing our meal and visiting your room, it was time for me to leave. When you realized that you were not going with me, you started crying. Your teacher was very understanding and got you preoccupied so I could slip out. But before I left, an “I love you” fell upon your ears. We never parted ways without me saying “I love you.” Your response always was “I love you more.” As your “Mam-ma Baby,” I am so blessed to have had such a wonderful loving and caring young man - - YOU- - as my Grandson!! Now it’s my turn to say - - - “I love you more!!”
