

Vera D Unseld

September 22, 1949 - August 28, 2025

Vera Dell Golden Unseld, a beloved mother, grandmother, great grandmother, sister, and friend, who peacefully entered eternal rest on August 28, 2025, at the age of 75.

Vera Dell Golden Unseld was born on September 22, 1949, in Phenix City, Alabama, to late Willie Golden and Mark Shank Golden. Vera was a proud graduate of Mount Olive High School, where she developed a strong sense of discipline and compassion that would follow her throughout her life.

Vera dedicated over two decades of her professional life to Saint Francis Hospital, where she served faithfully as a Supervisor/ Diet Technician. Vera's unwavering commitment to excellence and care for others left a lasting impression on colleagues. She retired in 2012 after 23 years of dedicated service.

At an early age, Vera accepted Christ and was a devoted member of Tabernacle Missionary Baptist Church. There, Vera joyfully sang in the choir and served diligently on the usher board. Vera's faith was a guiding light, and she found deep purpose in inspiring and encouraging others to know Christ. Vera's spiritual strength and gentle encouragement touched countless lives.

Family was the heart of Vera's world. Vera took great joy in cooking for her family, loving on her grandchildren and great-grandchildren, creating lasting memories filled with warmth, laughter, and grace. Vera's home was a place of comfort, Vera's smile a source of peace, and Vera's love knew no bounds.

Vera was preceded in death by her loving parents, Willie and Mary Golden, two sons, Marcus Unseld and Antonio Davis; siblings: Brothers Willie Golden Jr, Henry Golden, sisters Juanita Richardson, Geneva Lewis, Barbara Golden, Mary Davis.

Vera leaves behind a legacy of love and cherished memories in the hearts of those who survive her: her children Christopher Golden, David (Christina) Unseld Jr., and Pamela (Robert) Ivy; Daughter-in-Law: Monica Davis; Siblings: Betty Golden, Rev. Jimmy Dale Golden, and Ronald Golden. Grandchildren: Anthony (Kyla), Andrea K. Robert Jr., Rodney, Andrea B, Antonio, Shaquille, Kiara, Aynia, DayIn, Davian, and DaKari; 20 adored great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, extended family, and countless friends.
